The Fourth is a family affair on the Toon-Saloon

The week prior to the Fourth of July had been stressful for Dan Pinch as he flew into the Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport, just minutes away from Grapevine Lake where he could relax and finally be with his wife and two daughters. His objective was clear: head to the lake in his 29-foot, Toon-Saloon Premier 290 Grand Entertainer pontoon boat. It is his stress reliever.

Grapevine Lake where his boat is at is the other part of that stress reliever. It is located just minutes from the busy airport and presents so many opportunities for families to enjoy the outdoors. He gratefully takes advantage of the many activities on one of the best family-friendly lakes in the area. Cruising and tubing, jet skiing and great fishing are just a few of the activities available. The Pinch family do just that every chance they get. If the girls had their way, it would be even more so.

Even though he has twin
